7. Q & A
Title IX (Educational Amendments of 1972) prohibits discrimination on the basis of sex in educational programs or activities receiving federal financial assistance.

Anyone participating in or attempting to participate in educational programs or activities.
“Education program or activity” under Title IX

Includes locations, events, or circumstances over which the institution exercises substantial control over both the respondent and the context in which the alleged sexual harassment occurs, and also includes any building owned or controlled by a student organization that is officially recognized by the institution.

- Example of a “building owned or controlled by a student organization”: Fraternity or sorority house that is occupied by students of the organization, and the student organization is a recognized organization with the institution.

Source: Title IX Regulations (2020)
Definition of “Sex Discrimination”

Occurs when an individual is treated less favorably on the basis of that person’s sex (including gender), which may also include on the basis of sexual orientation, gender identity, or expression, pregnancy or pregnancy-related condition, or a sex stereotype.

Sexual harassment, as defined in the Model Policy, is a form of sex discrimination.

Source: UT System Model Policy for Sexual Misconduct (2021)
Definition of “Sexual Harassment” under Title IX

Conduct on the basis of sex that satisfies one or more of the following:

1. An employee of the institution conditioning the provision of an aid, benefit, or service of the institution on an individual’s participation in unwelcome sexual conduct (Quid Pro Quo);

2. Unwelcome conduct determined by a reasonable person to be so severe, pervasive, and objectively offensive that it effectively denies a person equal access to the institution’s education program or activity; or

3. “Sexual assault,” “dating violence,” “domestic violence,” or “stalking” as defined under Clery/VAWA.

Source: Title IX Regulations (2020)

#2 Element Examples

- “Severe”: Physically threatening or humiliating; effects of the alleged conduct to a reasonable person (using a “reasonable person” standard)
- “Pervasive”: Frequency, duration of the alleged conduct
- “Objectively offensive”: To a reasonable person (using a “reasonable person” standard)
- “Reasonable person” standard: An objective test to denote a hypothetical person who exercises average care, skill, and judgment in conduct under similar circumstances as a comparative standard.
- “Effectively denies…equal access”: Totality of the circumstances

For example, the degree of the alleged conduct’s interference with the CP or effects in an educational setting, type of alleged conduct, frequency and duration of the conduct, knowingly unwelcome in nature.
Conduct on the basis of sex that does not meet the definition of “sexual harassment” (under the Model Policy), but is

1. Verbal conduct (including through electronic means), unwanted statements of a sexual nature intentionally stated to a person or group of people, that are objectively offensive to a reasonable person and also so severe or pervasive that it created a Hostile Environment, as defined in the Model Policy.

2. Physical conduct…

Possible Examples (depending on facts):
- Unwelcome sexual advances (including explicit or implicit proposition(s) of sexual contact or activity);
- Requests for sexual favors (including overt or subtle pressure);
- Gratuitous comments about an individual’s sexual activities or speculation about an individual’s sexual experiences;
- Gratuitous comments, jokes, questions, anecdotes or remarks of a sexual nature about clothing or bodies;
- Persistent, unwanted sexual or romantic attention;
- Exposure to sexually suggestive visual displays such as photographs, graffiti, posters, calendars or other materials;
- Deliberate, repeated humiliation or intimidation;
- Sexual exploitation;
- Unwelcome intentional touching of a sexual nature; or
- Deliberate physical interference with or restriction of movement.

Definition of “Retaliation”

Any adverse action (including, but is not limited to, intimidation, threats, coercion, harassment, or discrimination) taken against someone because the individual has made a report or filed a Formal Complaint; or who has supported or provided information in connection with a report or a Formal Complaint; participated or refused to participate in a Grievance Process under this Policy; or engaged in other legally protected activities.

Note: Any person who retaliates against (a) anyone filing a report of Sexual Misconduct or Formal Complaint, (b) the parties or any other participants (including any witnesses or any University employee) in a Grievance Process relating to a Formal Complaint, (c) any person who refuses to participate in a Grievance Process, or (d) any person who under this Policy opposed any unlawful practice, is subject to disciplinary action up to and including dismissal or separation from the University.

Intersectionality:

Interconnected nature of social categorizations such as race, class, and gender as they apply to a given individual or group.

Creates overlapping and independent systems of discrimination and disadvantage.

Institutional Sexual Misconduct Policy (Example)

Prohibits sex discrimination, sexual harassment, retaliation, and other prohibited conduct under the policy, including:

- Sex Discrimination
- Sexual Harassment
  - Sexual Assault
  - Dating Violence
  - Domestic Violence
  - Stalking
- Retaliation
- Sexual Exploitation
- Other Inappropriate Sexual Conduct
- False Information & False Complaints
- Interference with the Grievance Process
- Failure to Report (for Responsible Employees)

Policy Differences Note: For the purposes of this training, the UTS Model Policy for Sexual Misconduct will be the primary policy reference. UT Institutional policies may have some differences.

UT System Model Policy for Sexual Misconduct (2021)

Institutions must reasonably respond in light of known circumstances...

1. Stop & prevent behavior from continuing or escalating
2. Remedies: Supportive measures & resources
3. Formal grievance process
Why is it important that institutions respond to reports of sexual misconduct?

Institutions provide:

- Campus remedies & supportive measures (with or without filing a formal complaint)
- Prompt, fair, & equitable grievance processes (by filing a formal complaint)
- Preponderance of the evidence standard (in the formal grievance process)
- An informal resolution option (in some circumstances, if available)

An Upstream Approach

Primary Prevention Tools
Upstream Approach

1. Focuses on the “root causes” of sexual harassment and sexual misconduct and changing the conditions and norms that typically enable sexual harassment and sexual misconduct to occur.
2. Focuses on cultivating a culture and environment where everyone feels safe, and shares community values.

1. Describe what a positive, productive [educational or work] environment means to you.
Examples of a positive, productive environment

- Being seen & heard
- Having agency of your work
- Bringing your “whole self” to work
- Being valued & respected
- Treating others with respect
- Being collaborative
- Listening to others

2. Name community values that can cultivate a positive environment where people can feel safe & thrive.
Examples of community values

- Respect
- Trust
- Communication
- Inclusion
- Teamwork
- Healthy Boundaries
- Support
- Accountability
- Transparency
- Learning

3. What does “healthy conflict” look like in a learning or working environment?
Examples of “healthy conflict”

- Healthy discourse
- Sharing differing viewpoints & perspectives openly
- Actively listening to others & considering others’ views
- Generating new ideas that address or counter other viewpoints
- Facilitating ideas for solutions to questions or problems

4. Describe ways to foster supportive relationships with colleagues or staff.
Examples of supportive relationships

- Help others feel safe, a sense of belonging, and that they matter.
- Show genuine interest in others.
- Acknowledge people’s strengths & contributions.
- Address peoples’ needs.
- Use active listening.
- Follow-through on your words & actions.
- Be open-minded.
- Assume good will.
- Engage & participate.
- Ask for input from others.
- Reassess & keep it up!

Recap: Upstream Approach to Primary Prevention

1. Develop a positive culture and environment.
2. Share and reinforce community values.
3. Establish and maintain clear boundaries, conduct expectations, and accountable consequences.
4. Support diversity and inclusion initiatives.
5. Cultivate open communication and collaboration.
6. Foster supportive relationships within teams.

Beliefs, Thoughts, & Feelings
What are some examples of assumptions, stereotypes, or prejudices relating to sex/gender that may emerge in a working or learning environment?

- Beliefs in strict gender roles
- Hostile attitudes toward a person on the basis of sex/gender (including gender identity & expression) or sexual orientation
- Accepting attitudes of IPV
- Assumptions that a person is superior/inferior on the basis of sex/gender (including gender identity & expression) or sexual orientation
- Beliefs in historical/societal gender norms
What are Boundaries?

- Limits
- Comfort levels
- Expectations
- Laws
- Prevention tool
- “Keep us safe”
- “Protect us”
- “A line”
- “Your bubble”

- Physical
- Emotional
- Psychological
- Sexual
- Relational
- Spiritual
- Ethical
- Legal

Adapted from UT Austin’s “Are We Okay?” Boundaries Workshop
Stop-Light Activity

For each prompt:
(Green): Within your boundary
(Yellow): Unsure of your boundary
(Red): Outside your boundary

Debrief

1. How did you know your boundaries when you were presented a hypothetical? How did you figure out where the “line” was for you?
2. How did it feel to name a color level to a hypothetical?...Green, yellow, or red...
3. How did you feel when you saw that others identify different levels of comfort than you? Either more comfortable or less comfortable than you in a scenario?
Boundary Takeaways

- Communication: Continue to check-in and revisit boundaries, expectations, accountability, and responsibilities.
- Taking stock: Understanding others’ needs, barriers, challenges, and support.
- Generous assumptions: Assume good will and/or good intentions.
- Curiosity: Ask questions to learn, clarify, and understand an unknown. Emphasize and model a growth mind-set.

Giving Feedback (Examples)

Use “I” statements…

Acknowledge your feelings.

Focus on the impact of the conduct.

Center on your needs & what your boundary does for you.

Concentrate on the problem, not the person.

Focus on strengths-based solutions…

Positive outcomes & benefits of acknowledging boundaries

Receiving Feedback
(Examples)

Take a pause.
Show gratitude: “Thank you for the feedback.”

Be accountable…
Acknowledge your behavior & its impact on other(s).
Reflect/restate the feedback you just heard.
Make a plan to change or adapt.

Report

Institution’s Title IX Coordinator

Adapted from UT Austin’s Title IX Basics Workshop
Under the institution’s Sexual Misconduct Policy, Responsible Employees have a duty to report incidents and information reasonably believed to be sexual misconduct (prohibited conduct defined) under the Policy.

All employees are Responsible Employees (except Confidential Employees or police officers when a victim uses a pseudonym form). Responsible Employees include all administrators, faculty, and staff.

Responsible Employees must report all known information concerning an alleged incident of sexual misconduct to the Title IX Coordinator.

Source:
UT System Model Policy for Sexual Misconduct (2021)

Examples of Confidential Employees?

Privileged communication under law:
- Licensed counselors, psychologists
- Doctors, physician assistants
- Nurses, nurse assistants
- Attorneys, general counsel
- Licensed social workers in a clinical or medical setting

Commonly designated “confidential” employees:
- Victim Advocates (who work with students)
- Student Ombuds
Definition of “Failure to Report” for Responsible Employees

If a Responsible Employee knowingly fails to report all information concerning an incident the employee reasonably believes constitutes stalking, dating violence, sexual assault, or sexual harassment committed by or against a student or employee at the time of the incident, the employee is subject to disciplinary action, including termination.

Intersectionality (Revisited):

Interconnected nature of social categorizations such as race, class, and gender as they apply to a given individual or group.

Creates overlapping and independent systems of discrimination and disadvantage.

Challenges and Barriers

- Family pressure or disagreements
- Care for family and/or dependents
- Financial stress
- Housing and/or food insecurity
- Disabilities
- Medical and/or mental health issues
- Unhealthy relationships
- Relationship breakups
- Lack of coping skills
- Addiction and/or substance use
- Academic issues

Intersectionality Considerations

- In what ways, if any, have specific challenges (e.g. racism, heterosexism, ableism, etc.) affected a person’s experiences?
- In what ways, if any, have a person’s communities, family, or friends affected a person’s decisions to:
  - Tell someone or report an incident
  - End or continue an unhealthy or abusive relationship
  - Get help or support
- Has the person received support from family and friends throughout the process? What does “being supported” look like for each person?
