Definition of “Sexual Harassment” under Title IX

Conduct on the basis of sex that satisfies one or more of the following:

1. An employee of the institution conditioning the provision of an aid, benefit, or service of the institution on an individual's participation in unwelcome sexual conduct (Quid Pro Quo);
2. Unwelcome conduct determined by a reasonable person to be so severe, pervasive, and objectively offensive that it effectively denies a person equal access to the institution’s education program or activity; or
3. “Sexual assault,” “dating violence,” “domestic violence,” or “stalking” as defined under Clery/VAWA.

Source: Title IX Regulations (2020)

#2 Element Examples

- “Severe”: Physically threatening or humiliating; effects of the alleged conduct to a reasonable person (using a “reasonable person” standard)
- “Pervasive”: Frequency, duration of the alleged conduct
- “Objectively offensive”: To a reasonable person (using a “reasonable person” standard)
- “Reasonable person” standard: An objective test to denote a hypothetical person who exercises average care, skill, and judgment in conduct under similar circumstances as a comparative standard.
- “Effectively denies...equal access”: Totality of the circumstances

For example, the degree of the alleged conduct's interference with the CP or effects in an educational setting, type of alleged conduct, frequency and duration of the conduct, knowingly unwelcome in nature
“Education program or activity” under Title IX

Includes locations, events, or circumstances over which the institution exercises substantial control over both the respondent and the context in which the alleged sexual harassment occurs, and also includes any building owned or controlled by a student organization that is officially recognized by the institution.

- Example of a “building owned or controlled by a student organization”: Fraternity or sorority house that is occupied by students of the organization, and the student organization is a recognized organization with the institution.

Institutions must reasonably respond in light of known circumstances…

1. Stop & prevent behavior from continuing or escalating
2. Remedies: Supportive measures & resources
3. Formal grievance process
Why is it important that institutions respond to reports of sexual misconduct?

Institutions provide:
- Campus remedies & supportive measures (with or without filing a formal complaint)
- Prompt, fair, & equitable grievance processes (by filing a formal complaint)
- Preponderance of the evidence standard (in the formal grievance process)
- An informal resolution option (in some circumstances, if available)

---

Key Pillars: Title IX Process

For all of the participants in the process:

- Complainants
- Respondents
- Witnesses
- Third-party Reporters
Serving Impartially in Your Role

- Must avoid prejudgment of the facts at issue
- Must avoid conflicts of interest
- Must avoid bias

Principles for Title IX Process

- Must maintain complete neutrality & impartiality at all times in investigating alleged conduct violations of institutional policies.
- Understanding bias & whether it exists: Need to take an “objective, common sense approach to evaluating whether a person serving in a role is biased.” (Title IX Preamble (2020))...
Avoiding Bias

- Must not treat a party differently:
  - On the basis of the person’s sex;
  - On stereotypes about how men or women behave with respect to sexual violence; and/or
  - On the basis of the person’s characteristics: sex, race, ethnicity, sexual orientation, gender identity, disability, immigration status, financial ability, socioeconomic status, or other characteristic.

Resolution Options

Formal Grievance Process

Informal Resolution

Formal Complaint Dismissal
Informal Resolutions: Introduction

It’s an alternative resolution option once a formal complaint is filed.

- Voluntary agreement made by both parties, if available.
- Available as an option at any time prior to reaching a determination regarding responsibility.
- Doesn’t involve a full investigation & adjudication.
- May be facilitated through mediation (as an example).

Note: Each party has a right to withdraw from the informal resolution process and resume the formal grievance process at any point prior to an agreement.

Why an Informal Resolution?

- Provide options and choice for the parties to explore their own voluntary terms for a resolution.
- Opportunity to remedy and repair harm that was experienced through an alternative method.
- Ability to explore non-punitive and/or learning-focused resolutions, if desired.
• Not permitted as a resolution option “under Title IX” when an employee respondent is alleged of “sexual harassment” by a student complainant.

• Examples of other non-applicable reasons* due to seriousness and/or pattern of allegations:
  o Sexual Harassment cases
  o Sexual Violence cases
  o Dating or Domestic Violence cases
  o Stalking cases
  o The same respondent has previous informal resolution agreements

* Check the institution’s Sexual Misconduct Policy for specific provisions

Once a formal complaint is filed...

An Informal Resolution Process must include:

a) Written notice of allegations;

b) Required elements of the informal process; and

c) Any consequences resulting from participating in an informal process

Source: Title IX Regulations (2020)
Upon receipt of a formal complaint, promptly send written notice to CP & RP:

- Notice of the grievance process under the policy;
- Notice of the allegations that potentially constitute prohibited conduct under the policy, sufficient details about the alleged conduct: Date(s), time(s), and location(s);
- A statement that the potential policy violations are being investigated;
Written Notice (Continued)

- A statement that the RP is presumed not responsible for the alleged conduct and that the determination regarding responsibility will be made at the conclusion of the grievance process;
- Both parties may have an advisor of choice, who may be, but is not required to be, an attorney, and may inspect and review all evidence;
- A statement that the parties may review evidence gathered as part of the any investigation;

- A provision of the policy that knowingly making false statements or knowingly submitting false information during the grievance process is prohibited and subject to disciplinary action;

2. Campus & local resources or services
3. Rights & options of both parties
4. A copy of the grievance process & policy

Informal Process Considerations

- Under the institution’s policy, what is the IR availability? What conditions are permissible for an IR agreement?
- What are the timeframe parameters to complete an IR agreement?
- Who will facilitate IR’s?
- What acknowledgments are required by both parties before an IR agreement?
- What are the consequences resulting from participating in an informal process?

Example Acknowledgments & Consequences of Participating in an IR Process

1. Acknowledgment of the written notice and allegations therein.
2. Received rights and options of both parties.
3. An IR agreement is a voluntary option, if available under the institution’s policy.
4. Each party has the right to withdraw from the IR process and resume the formal grievance process...
5. IR timeframe (example: within 45 days of notice)
6. No recording will be made of the IR process...
7. Any statements made during the IR process may not be used for or against either party… should the parties resume the formal grievance process.
8. The respondent will not be eligible for further IR agreements in the future.
9. An IR agreement will be based on individual needs, and based on specific facts and circumstances available.
10. Documentation & records provisions… 7 years retention…privacy and confidentiality of records…
11. Terms of Enforcement: Failure to comply with a provision or term in an IR agreement may result in disciplinary action.

Examples of Agreement Terms

- Stop engaging in prohibited conduct defined in SHSM policy
- SHSM Training or Workshop Assignment
- Mutual No-Contact Btwn Parties
- Alcohol EDU Workshop

Facilitation Approaches

Exploration & Mediation Tools

- Rapport-building
- Active listening
- Motivational interviewing
- Indirect facilitation (e.g. shuttle-diplomacy)
- Restorative considerations
Rapport-Building Prompts

• “Help me understand how you are feeling right now.”
• “What, if anything, can I explain to you about this process before we get started?”

Note: Consider possible barriers or concerns to building trust with a participant.

• Facilitators: How can you minimize or eliminate these factors?

Source: Forensic Experimental Trauma Interview (FETI)

Active Listening

• Goal: Provide the person a sense of feeling heard and understood
• Listener’s Mindset: Open-minded, objective, & impartial
• Pay full attention to the person
• Nodding, affirmative non-verbals
• Not interrupting; using silence
• Open-Ended Phrases
• Clarifying checks & validations:
  - Validating & emotional acknowledgements
  - Reflecting (mirroring/paraphrasing)
  - Summarizing
  - Restating
Active Listening: Examples

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Type</th>
<th>Example Prompts</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Validating</td>
<td>• “That sounds difficult.” • “It’s okay to feel upset.”</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Emotional Acknowledgements</td>
<td>• “You seem disappointed right now.” • “Having to consider different options can be stressful to navigate.”</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Reflecting</td>
<td>• “What I’m hearing is...” • “Sounds like you are saying...”</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Summarizing or Restating</td>
<td>• “Let me summarize to check my understanding [Repeat back]... Did I get that right?” • “[Repeat/rephrase what the other person said]...Is this what you mean?”</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Open-Ended Phrases</td>
<td>• “Tell me more about...” • “Explain/describe...” • “What do you mean when you say...?” • “Help me understand...”</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Affirmative Comm</td>
<td>• “Yes” • “I see.” • “Go on.” • “Right.”</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

Motivational Interviewing

- Goal: Provides an avenue for someone to take action for changing behavior
- Conduct-specific focus
- The person is interested in the need for change
- Organize a plan & actionable pathway for change
- Facilitator uses Active Listening skills:
  - Validating & emotional acknowledgements
  - Reflecting (mirroring/paraphrasing)
  - Summarizing
  - Restating
- Avoid conflicts and stay solution-focused
Motivational Interviewing: Informal Resolution

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Purpose</th>
<th>Example Prompts</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Draw out ideas</td>
<td>• “What are your thoughts/feelings about the allegations?”</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>• “What was your thought process at the time?”</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>• “Who has been affected by your conduct?”</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>• “How did your actions impact others?”</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>• “How do you want to approach an IR agreement?”</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>• “What do you think about ____?”</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Be open to all types of responses</td>
<td>• “How would you like to proceed?”</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>• “What are some applicable takeaways that you can learn and grow from this experience?”</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>• “What are terms or remedies that seem fair to you?”</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>• “The decision to accept or not accept certain terms or remedies is up to you.”</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>• “What do you think might be getting in the way of you doing things differently in the future?”</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

Motivational Interviewing: Other Considerations

- Be mindful of the person’s desire, ability, reasons, and/or needs to change one’s own behavior, mindset, or attitude on the subject matter.
- Tailor facilitation prompts or responses based on the person’s interest to changing one’s own behavior.
- Acknowledge the person’s concerns, emotions, and needs.
Motivational Interviewing: Refocusing Conversations

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Purpose</th>
<th>Example Prompts</th>
</tr>
</thead>
</table>
| If the person doesn’t respond to the relevant prompts... | • Rephrase the prompt again.
• Acknowledge the shift: “It seems like the discussion is evolving to ____, but we started off exploring ____.” |
| If the person makes an argument about a different topic... | • Acknowledge the concern & attempt to finish the initial discussion first: “I want to talk about that, but let’s first finish addressing ____?” |
| If the person attempts to change the subject... | • It might be to vent or release some tension.
• Prompt the person to discuss what’s on their mind.
• Then, use active listening to acknowledge the person’s current concerns, emotions, and/or needs.
• Try to link the person’s concerns with the initial discussion topic. |

Restorative Considerations

- Addresses the conduct, impacts, and/or needs of the individuals?
- Provides accountability & support?
- Actively engages with the individuals?
- Learning-focused?
- Opportunities for closure?
- Ability to reintegrate the person back into the community?
Indirect Facilitation (Shuttle-Diplomacy)

A mediator acts as a go-between and facilitates impartially the negotiation of proposed terms between the two parties. It doesn't require direct face-to-face interaction between the parties.

Example model

Restorative Approaches: Additional Examples

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Type</th>
<th>Description</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Restorative Conferences</td>
<td>A structured and facilitated conversation between two or more individuals (often the person who has been harmed (CP) and the person who caused the harm (RP)). An agreement between the parties can resolve and address what steps the RP can take to repair the harm and rebuild trust.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Restorative Circles</td>
<td>Similar to a restorative conference, but typically involves a larger group and a community approach to addressing and repairing harm. It involves a structured dialogue of turn-taking between the person(s) harmed (CPs), the person(s) who caused the harm (RPs), and others who have been impacted. Also helpful for community-building or discussing difficult issues.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Surrogate Participation</td>
<td>A restorative circle or conference in which the CP doesn’t want to participate in a restorative process but wants someone else (surrogate) to help the RP to understand the impact of the harm.</td>
</tr>

Informal Resolution Timeframe (Example)

Informal Resolution Documentation

Any final resolution pursuant to the Informal Resolution process will be documented and kept for seven years as required by law. However, no recording of the Informal Resolution process will be made and all statements made during the Informal Resolution process and may not be used for or against either party (and the Hearing Officer and Appellate Officer may not consider any such statement made during Informal Resolution) should the parties resume the Grievance Process.
